

- EBOLA OUTBREAK -
MEASURES TAKEN BY THE VARIOUS PORT AUTHORITIES IN WEST AND CENTRAL AFRICA

GUINEA infected
Port of CONARKY:
no official measure taken to date for incoming or outgoing vessels

SENEGAL infected
Port of DAKAR:
Mandatory sanitary inspection of all vessels arriving from other infected countries

SIERRA LEONE infected
Port of FREETOWN:
1. ALL crew to remain onboard during call
2. Reduce physical contact with outsiders to minimum required
3. Gloves and masks mandatory for anyone attending ship

LIBERIA infected
Port of MONROVIA:
1. ALL crew to remain onboard during call
2. Reduce physical contact with outsiders to minimum required
3. Gloves and masks mandatory for anyone attending ship

IVORY COAST
Port of ABIDJAN:
Mandatory sanitary inspection at anchorage prior to berthing authorization
Port of SAN PEDRO:
1. Vessels to provide copies of last sanitary control + copy of medical record book for past 20 days
2. Mandatory sanitary inspection upon berthing
4. NO ONE else to be allowed onboard until clearance by sanitary inspectors
3. Vessels to declare immediately any suspicion of Ebola onboard and raise Yellow Flag -> 21 days-quarantine of rest of crew to follow

TOGO
Port of LOME:
Mandatory sanitary inspection upon berthing for vessels arriving from infected countries

DEM.REP. of CONGO infected
Port of MATADI and BOMA:
no official measure taken to date for incoming or outgoing vessels

BENIN
Port of COTONOU:
no official measure taken to date

GABON
Ports of OWNEDO, LIBREVILLE and PORT GENTIL:
As per information to date, the Gabonese Minister of Transports has ordered a complete BAN until further notice of any vessel having called in an infected country.

NIGERIA infected
Port of LAGOS:
1. Mandatory sanitary inspection at anchorage for vessels arriving from infected countries
2. Reduce physical contact with outsiders to minimum required
3. Gloves and masks mandatory for anyone attending ship

CAMEROON
Port of DOUALA:
As per information to date, vessels arriving from / having called in an infected country shall undergo a 21-days quarantine starting from date of departure, to be followed by sanitary inspection.

*The above is provided for information purpose only and shall not bind IVORY P&I legally.
Shipowners are to check with local Agents specific regulations prior to any call in the area.*